HOW IT LOOKS FROM A CORNER

By BILL KATZ

Tourist trade in and through Daly City is greater this year than any time since 1939, Hugh H. Smith Jr., operator of the Mission Auto Court reported this week.

He said that for the past month the "vacant" sign has been taken down from the court promptly at 6 p.m. Also, he asserts that other motel owners report the same kind of business.

"Things are really booming," Hugh said. "Whereas before tourists usually chose one place for their vacations, this year they seem to want to take in everything in two weeks. They are here one night, and gone the next."

Can it be that the population is more restless this year, or is it because they want to see the country while it is still in one marvelous piece?

The Daly City Record

Last week the Daly City Record ran a page 1 story on Dr. Leo D. Mahan who opened his dental offices at 6315 Mission Monday.

Dr. Mahan reports that shortly after the paper hit the streets he received many phone calls wishing him well in the office occupied by the former Dr. Grieb.

"They sure read the Record," Dr. Mahan noted.

Increased Land Values To Offset High Budget

This week the city indicated means by which it would meet the record high budget this year of $514,205.

While the basic tax rate will not increase ($1.16 per $100 assessed valuation, approximately) the $71,952 difference between the 1949-50 budget and the current budget will be made up via:

1. Increased land and use valuations which are $1 million higher than last year, for a record high of $7,157,838. In other words, with a larger assessed valuation there is a greater base to tax, bringing in more revenue.

2. Anticipated cash receipts from outside sources will be increased $53,907 over last year. This breaks down into:

a. Receipts from business, vehicle, pinball machine and other licenses are anticipated to rise over last year to a high of $34,033.

b. Building permits will bring in

Daly City Boys Club Opens: All May Join

An excited throng of 100 boys and their parents were on hand Monday night for the grand opening of the new Daly City Boys Club, No. 2 Hillside boulevard.

The clubhouse is now in full operation six days a week, and is open to any lad between the ages of 8 and 16, Frank Bria, director, said today.

Primarily organized to keep boys off the streets during the evening, the club is open from 7 to 9 p.m. for lads 8 to 14 and from 9 to 10:30 for the 14 to 16 age group. Saturdays the club's hours are from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Any boy is eligible to join the organization. A small fee of $1 a year is charged, payable at 50 cents each six months. However, any member who can not afford the dues will not be turned away, Bria said.

"We can thank the people of Daly City for this fine showing," Bria noted. "If it hadn't been for (Continued on Page 2)

D. C. EMPLOYEES APPEAR AGAINST JOINING UNION

Workers Satisfied With Present Assn.

Daly City employees appeared cool today to efforts of the AFL San Mateo County Public Employees League to organize all county city employees.

Those contacted expressed satisfaction in the present Daly City Employees organization — a non-union group to which all city workers belong.

"Why should we pay a union monthly dues, when we can do well on our own right," an employee noted.

Mayor Paul Green said he had not been approached by any member of the organizing union.

Meanwhile, 25 San Carlos city employees this week officially joined the AFL, forming the first municipal union affiliation in San Mateo County's history.

First goal of the organization is to be the standardization of wages and working conditions to bring city employees into line with other men performing comparable jobs in private industry.

Edward J. Carrigan, secretary-treasurer in San Mateo Building Service Employees International Union, Local 81, AFL, suggested a 40-hour week might be worked out for all employees.

Daly City employees will go on the 40-hour, five-day week within the next few months. This action was approved by the city council several weeks ago.

Carrigan, who helped to organize the union, asserted the group conceivably might include more than 1,000 employees of San Mateo county's 13 cities and perhaps 600 of 1,000 county government employees.

Burglar Makes $475 Haul

Police today were searching for a burglar who took some $475 in cash and goods from the home of Mrs. Marie Stuehmer, 270 Whittier, last Friday.

Using a one-inch crowbar, the thief forced open a west window and entered the home. He went to a bedroom where he ransacked all the drawers and removed a lady's gold bracelet worth $25, and a man's diamond ring valued at $150.

In the den, he took a .38 calibre revolver appraised at $100, and $200 in cash from a strong box. The key to the strong box was in a desk drawer.

Pocketing his loot, the burglar tried to make off with a table model TV set. However, it proved too heavy for him, and he left it, wrapped in a blanket, in the patio.

Mrs. Stuehmer, an employee of a San Francisco newspaper, was absent from the house between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. Friday.

Car Thieves Had Best Stay Away From Gretsch

W. J. Gretsch, 17 Garwood drive, was one step ahead of car thieves last Sunday.

He called police at 5:45 a.m. to report that someone had attempted to enter his car which was parked in the driveway of his home.

When police arrived, Gretsch said he had seen another car speed away from his driveway just a few minutes before.

How had he been warned at such an early hour, police asked?

"I have a burglar system rigged up in the car which sounds off if anyone tries to tamper with the machine," Gretsch explained.

Anyone interested in learning the Daly City man's method of foiling thieves can call Gretsch.

Orrin Wendling Introduced At Council Meet

Routine business was the order of the evening at the regular meeting of the city council Monday night.

Orrin Wendling, Daly City's first administrative officer, was introduced to the small audience in the council chambers. He began work Wednesday of this week, three days before the official date set last week.

Bids were called for an irrigation system and sprinklers for Marchbanks park. The bids must be submitted to the city clerk before July 24.

Deeds were accepted for lots in two parks, Frankfort and Edgewood, respectively. These parks are part of the $101,000 park program approved by voters last year.

Last year's salary schedule was adopted for all city employees. Only the building inspector, George Hopman, received a salary increase to $400 a month.

Final payment was authorized for the L. C. Smith Company for work in Garden Valley. Total final payment was $3,478.

A part payment of $6,606 was authorized the Fay Improvement Company for improvements in Concordia.

Also, A. C. Conci, city gardener, is to be given $160 a month for advice and work on city parks and gardens.

K. C. Martin Company was paid $704 for construction of a concrete retaining wall at Marchbanks Park, and C. T. Haus Company received $5,646 for installation of the 8-inch water main along Junipero Serra boulevard.

Before the meeting concluded, a resident of the Concordia district requested that the city water down streets in the area. He asserted the sand has become so deep that cars can not safely get over the streets.

Mayor Paul Green authorized the city fire department to use their hose to wash some of the sand off the streets.

New Grand Jury To Be Chosen Soon

Early next month San Mateo county will have a new grand jury.

Superior Judge Edmund Scott this week said the jury would include about half the members of his 1946-47 jury. In this, the judge will carry out a recommendation of the jury to permit holdover members to remain on succeeding juries, thereby providing experienced members for each jury.

In all, Judge Scott said he would place 10 names of his old grand jury into the drum from which the 19 members will be picked at random.

Blaze Busters Douse Three Grass Fires

Three grass fires, all of a minor nature, kept blaze-busters hopping over the week end.

No damage was reported as a result of any of the fires. Two of the grass fires were in the Crocker hills at 2:14 p.m. Friday, and 5:50 p.m. Saturday, respectively.

The third blaze was in a lot across the street from 183 Oliver street at 3:20 p.m. Friday.

Judge W. J. Sweeney Now "Up The River"

Judge W. J. Sweeney was "up the river" today in the country of memories that linger.

The river is the Russian river where the good judge has a summer home. He left here last week, and will be on vacation until July 17.

Meanwhile, this Friday Judge S. K. Robbins, South San Francisco, will be on the bench in Daly City's municipal court.

Last week, Judge Sweeney's secretary, Mrs. Dolly Boggio, received the pleas and fines of violators.

Marines Need Vets' Services

Veterans who are members of the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, holding the rank of sergeant or below, may now apply for 1 year of active duty, according to word received here today from Marine Corps Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

Marine reservists desiring active duty must be able to meet all current enlistment requirements.

Former Marines, not now members of the Reserve component, are eligible for assignment to 1 year's active duty upon enlistment in the Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve. They must meet the same requirements as those who are currently members of the Reserve, and must present their discharge from the Marine Corps when applying for processing. Enlistments in the Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve for the purpose of assignment to active duty are now being effected by all Marine Corps Recruiting Stations.

School Contracts Awarded Bidders

Awarding of bids for improvements of Jefferson and Crocker schools was the principal business of a special meeting of the Jefferson elementary school district board last Thursday evening.

A. W. Breuer, with a bid of $3,313, was given the contract for the painting of Jefferson school.

Kennedy Electric Company, bidding $2,176, was awarded the contract for new lighting for the same school.

The Dan Goodwin roofing company, with a bid of $1,297, was awarded the contract for a new roof for Crocker school.

In each of the aforesaid cases, the lowest bidder was given the contract.

Cornerstone For New Church To Be Layed This Sunday

Mid-way in construction of the new Grace Presbyterian church, the ceremony of "Laying of the Cornerstone" will be observed this Sunday.

The church, which is expected to be completed by October, is located at Crocker and Winchester. All the friends of the church are cordially invited to attend the ceremony.

"This is an impressive service which I and the community have been looking forward to for many years," The Rev. William Harberts, pastor of the church, said.

Beginning at 4 p.m. Sunday, July 16, the program will be as follows: Anthem, "Our God Our Help in Ages Past," by the choir.

The invocation by The Rev. Paul Lane Hall, pastor St. James Presbyterian church.

The responsive reading by The Rev. Arthur Willis, H.R. Hymn, "The Churches One Foundation."

Draft notices will go out soon to approximately 10 men in Daly City, out of which two will be called up for service.

These figures are speculative, and based on the announcement by the State Selective Service headquarters this week that draft notices will soon be sent to 6,004 California men. Out of this pool, induction centers will pick 1,187 registrants — the state's quota in the 20,000-man request by the defense department.

Using the latest population figures of both the county and Daly City, it is estimated today that the aforesaid Daly City men will be affected. They will be among 150 men in the county to get notices, of whom about 30 will be called in the first draft.

The call has gone out from selective service for a 20,000-man draft "as soon as possible and not later than September 30."

Mayor Paul Green said today no plans have been made to set up local draft boards.

Men in the 18 to 25 year class inclusive must register at Local (Continued on Page 2)

Fred Bertetta—House Wrecker Extraordinary

Councilman Fred Bertetta huffed a little, puffed a little, and pulled down a house at the corner of Alp and Mission Monday.

The Goodenough home, condemned by the city — the property is to be used for the $295,000 Community Center building — has been in a state of collapse for several months.

Residents, who feared their children might be endangered, were impatiently waiting for Daly City firemen to burn down the old house, when Bertetta volunteered to do the job.

Sizing up the frame house, Bertetta rolled up his shirtsleeves and went to work.

No, he didn't push it down himself. Instead he tied several chains around the foundations, connected them to a truck and pulled out the underpinning. The next minute nothing remained of the structure but a cloud of dust and heaps of boards.

Wednesday night Daly City firemen set fire to the "remains."

Surge To The Suburbs

A Washington dispatch says that the pattern of early returns on the population census shows a "strong movement from big city centers to the suburbs."

That's one reason, say census officials, why some of the big cities are finding their counts below what was expected. Cities like Washington and Cleveland, as well as Los Angeles and San Francisco, are getting disappointingly low counts. New York City is also likely to be in the smaller-than-expected category.

Of course, many reasons are given for the exodus to the open spaces. Most prominent among these are the desire for more elbow room, fresh air and quiet; the shortage of city parking space; the desire for a home where land and taxes are cheaper; the ample availability of bank loans for home buying or building; and the feeling (held by some) that suburban life provides "social distinction"; and, no doubt, the feeling that one might fare better in outlying areas should there be an "exchange" of atomic bombs between nations.

But, whatever the reason, the out-of-town urge and surge is no mere flash in the pan. The business census shows that retail stores and all types of businesses are "following the crowd" to the suburbs.

Our guess is that as long as there are new areas suitable for homebuilding the trek to suburbs will continue.

United Front On Korea

No one knows what the Korean situation will lead to — no one, that is, but the Moscow leaders. But regardless of the eventual outcome of the Korean war the emergency has served to unite members of both parties here in America in a firm determination to resist the unprovoked aggression. The attack has also welded the democratic elements in the United Nations more closely together.

There can be little doubt that the decision of President Truman to give aid in Korea has the backing of the American people. We've seen too much in years not long past of the results of the failure to act swiftly and forcefully in similar situations. In view of this and in view of our obligation to the people of South Korea there was no other honorable choice.

If war should come as a result of our action it will involve only a matter of timing, because we have learned that to keep hands off while aggressors carry out one step after another of their greedy plans only leads to war eventually anyway. By leaping in now with both fists we may make a lasting impression on the Kremlin and thus prevent a full scale conflict later.

street and Junipero Serra boulevard.

Plans call for a giant bowling alley, cocktail lounge and bar, restaurant, and lodge room.

"This will be a real asset to Daly City," Brocchini said today. "We are building here because we are more than aware of the ever-growing needs of this area for such a building."

This will be the only bowling alley and sports center in the Daly City area, and will offer local residents one of the best recreation centers in the Bay area.

Further information on the project may be obtained by calling either PLaza 5-4395 or GA 1-2000.

Three Suspects Held In Colonial $300 Monday Theft

Police today were quizzing two new suspects in the $300 robbery of the Colonial drive-in restaurant, Junipero Serra boulevard, early Monday morning.

Samuel Houston, 26, a cook, 957 Mason street, San Francisco, and Walter S. Hahn, 21, a meat packer, were picked up shortly after Stephen Kelly, 28, was arrested at his Hunters Point home within an hour after the robbery.

Kelly was arrested after police discovered he had dropped a tag for a parking meter violation on the floor of the restaurant. The pink slip was made out to Kelly in San Francisco June 9.

Deputies ascertained Kelly was a former employee of the restaurant, and had been discharged several months ago for cause.

Following the address on the ticket, deputies found Kelly asleep at home, a bottle of expensive whiskey by the bed, and $150 in a cigar box under the bed.

After two hours of questioning, Kelly, married, and the father of two children, admitted his part in the robbery. Chief Deputy Walter H. Moore said.

Kelly, according to Moore, said he and his pal had intended to knock over the Colonial cafe's big safe, and they removed the pins from the hinges before giving up. The $300 they got from a box hidden in a linen closet.

Kelly said he did not see Benny Williams, the janitor. However, Williams told officers that two men jumped him when he came out of the rear door of the Colonial between 4 and 5 o'clock Monday morning. They bound him, and tossed him into a vegetable locker in a storage shed.

Williams said he thought he heard a third man on the roof of the cafe.

Gibson Burke, 120 Westlawn, owner of the cafe, said Kelly was employed as a night porter three or four months ago. He was dismissed for negligence and drinking the bar's whiskey, Burke said.

Kelly and Hahn have been charged with robbery while Houston is still being questioned.

Bothered With "Pesky" Flies? Woodrow Wilson PTA Offers Solution

The State Department of Health in its pamphlet, "California's Health," recently published a most informative article on the evaluation and control of community fly problems.

Mrs. Henry Adami, Woodrow Wilson's PTA president, calls attention to the fly control methods suggested, as a matter of special interest to all mothers who are concerned about the summer safety and health of their youngsters.

Public interest in the control of domestic flies has increased during recent years. Fly problems are seldom found to cover an entire community, but will be noted in certain sections, or particular blocks. Occasionally, where the infestation seems acute in a block area, the actual center of the problem can generally be traced to one or two premises in the area.

Therefore, before any expenditure is made to eradicate flies, the Bureau of Vector Control suggests that an evaluation be made, through baited traps and tangle-foot tapes or—most popular—the fly grill.

The city fly control problem centers around garbage collection and disposal. In this connection covered trucks and care in the handling and collection of the garbage are important. In spite of attempts to control it, the empty lots in residential areas frequently become the dumping grounds for refuse — animal excrement, dead animals, and other wastes. Community control of flies is actually the responsibility of the individual householder.

Garbage should not be allowed to accumulate except in tight-fitting containers — first placing the garbage in newspapers or bags. The constant accumulation in a garbage can requires it to be scrubbed regularly. This is also an economical factor — not only does it discourage flies, but will keep the garbage can from the rapid disintegration which would otherwise occur. Animal excrement should be properly disposed of immediately upon discovery to keep it from drawing flies and from the reach of small children — either accidentally or innocently. Lawn clippings decompose in a very few days and may draw several species of flies.

Much chemical control has been used, but this should be considered as a secondary measure, and it is costly as well. In some areas, there is a widespread resistance of flies to DDT.

Mrs. Adami recommends, therefore, that each householder — and certainly where there are children — make it his special and personal duty to improve his disposal methods, take note of any undesirable situation and report it to our city health department. It will go a long way toward avoiding illnesses and epidemics and keeping your children in shape for school.

Daly City's First Draft Quota

Board No. 57, 45 North B street, San Mateo. To meet the special emergency, the draft board is open all day, six days a week.

Mrs. Virginia Anderson, co-ordinator of the board, said no quota has been received as yet for the local board's first draft. However, she said the call was "expected at any minute."

The first men to be called up will be of the older eligible age group (24 to 25, inclusive).

Eligible men in Board 57 now total 882. Among the first to go will be 34 men who underwent physical examinations a year ago, and were tagged "ready to go" at that time. However, before being drafted these men will be given a new physical examination.

The 1-A slot for all of San Mateo county is filled with 1,914 men. The draft board will meet July 17 to reclassify all men who should be placed in 1-A, Mrs. Anderson said.

In the meantime, all men born after August 30, 1922, and 18 years old, or older should be registered. If they are not yet 18, they must register when they attain that age.

The rule applies to everybody — including veterans now in an armed forces reserve.

Registration is not enough, however, for in many cases men have changed their draft status. Most common delinquencies are failure to notify the board of a change of address, employment or marital status.

Meanwhile, the San Mateo county recruiting offices of the army, navy and air force report enlistments are up from 500 to 700 per cent.

The recruiters said there "was a tremendous influx" right after the announcement Monday that 20,000 men were to be drafted. Greatest proportion of applicants have been in the 19 to 21 year old bracket.

HOW IT LOOKS FROM A CORNER

in errand drivers. This week, Judge W. J. Sweeney revealed that last year lawbreakers, and drivers who were stopped by police put $22,969 in the city coffers.

This was still below the previous year, however, as during 1948-49 the city was made $25,499 richer by traffic and criminal fines.

Who says Daly City cops don't earn their own way?

Not only are the soldiers on the Korean front faced with a rugged enemy but indications this week were that their stomachs soon would be taking a beating.

We see by the market page that the price of wholesale eggs has gone up from 1 to 6 cents a dozen.

This can mean only one thing — the army is turning the surplus eggs into a powdered yellow substance which soon will be filling the stomachs of our G-I's in Korea. Anyone who has lived on dehydrated eggs can fully appreciate the calamity of this situation.

We also wonder whether or not the old C ration is still being employed, and whether our favorite food, SOS, has made the front lines of Korea.

True, our men are fighters, but possibly the loss of so much territory can only be accounted for with too little too late. We're inclined to think the army "mess" might have something to do with the situation.

Classes Open

Registration is now open for the last children's summer swimming class at Jefferson High school pool, Coach Glenn South said today.

The class, held from July 31 to August 11, is open to all youngsters who wish to learn how to stay afloat in a pool.

Boys Club Is Now Open To All their generous contributions, we would have never had the courage, or the money to reopen the vitally needed club."

It is hoped those who backed the club will continue both their moral and financial support. Anyone wishing to contribute time, skill, or money is asked to contact Bria at the club, or the secretary, Mrs. Marion McKaskle, at PL 5-2574.

Boxing Matches

Highlighting the first evening of activities were amateur boxing matches between the charter members. There were three bouts with Carmen and Frank Bria Jr. in the first fight. This ended a draw.

In the second battle, Ken Klees defeated Daryl Hall, while the third bout between Lalla Huntsman and Joe Cardinelli ended in a draw.

This was followed by an archery exhibition by Bria.

Then, the club was thrown open to the many activities which will be offered the boys during the evening hours. These include everything from checkers to craft work.

Sea Scouts

Members of Daly City Sea Scout Ship No. 144 were actively assisting the club officers during the evening. Under the supervision of Skipper Edgar A. Swinger, the scouts will give time each week to helping out at the club.

One of their more important duties will be to guide the smaller boys across Mission street during the evening hours of the club.

Helping Monday night were Sea Scouts: Richard L. Schlaffer, mate; Ben Miller, boatswain; Tony Ny, Jerry Williamson, Arthur Whiting and George Rasmussen, apprentices.

Instructors Needed

Bria, and other officials of the club stressed at the Monday night meeting the necessity of getting as much outside help as possible.

Answering the call was A. Domincchini, Daly City shoemaker, who said he would be happy to teach any boy the fundamentals of his trade.

"We appreciated Mr. Domincchini's offer, and hope other craftsmen will also see fit to give us a helping hand," P. J. Noll, club president, said today.

Tournaments

During the next few months, the Daly City Boys Club will run off a series of tournaments to determine the champion in various activities. These "champs" will meet the winners of similar contests held by the Daly City Recreation department, and the grand winners will go on to challenge boys in the San Francisco Boys Clubs.

Members of the club have already shown interest in a variety of activities. Monday evening David Rasmussen, 443 Vista Grande, and Bill Brandt, 473 Knowles, inquired if it would be possible to start a glee club.

Are there any readers who are potential glee club leaders? Also, as a sidelight, there were two young ladies present at the opening of the club.

Mary Ann Espinosa and her sister Gloria Ann, 443 Winchester, asked why a similar Girls Club couldn't be organized. Well, what say, ladies?

Contributors

Those who made the opening celebration possible include: Frank Lombardi, who donated pop, and has given the boys the use of the clubhouse; George Glass, Hilltop Market, who donated 12 pounds of coffee and 12 cans of milk; Lees Drug Store, which gave the boys a first aid kit, and have promised to keep it filled; Mr. Scott of Mid-city Barber Shop gave a bale of hay for the archery set; Harry, of Harry's Bakery, donated a cake, as did Larry Elam; Mr. Dean, 6622 Mission, gave the boys a large art table, electric hot plate and card tables, and Klees Film Service, 225 Los Olivos donated pictures.

ASSOCIATION MEETING

Sweetwood Drive Erosion Problem To Be Discussed This Evening

Erosion—this time at the northern end of Sweetwood drive—will once again be the main topic up for discussion at the meeting of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association tonight, July 13.

Open to the public, the meeting begins at 8 p.m. in the Broadmoor Community center.

Tom Jenkins, association president, reports he has a five-page letter in which residents of, and near 1671 and 1675 Sweetwood, state they want immediate action on grading a 45 degree hill behind their homes.

The residents assert that the next good rainfall will wash down some 1,750 square feet of clay into their yards, and possibly destroy their homes.

They state that they have contacted the county board of supervisors and Stoneson Brothers, builders of Broadmoor, but as yet have received "nothing but promises." Therefore, they have requested the Association take immediate action to have the hill behind their homes graded.

John Rousi Jr., 1675 Sweetwood, and Will Fradenburg, 1671 Sweetwood, who signed the letter, said that the bottom of the slope is cracked and shows signs of sliding "any day."

Jenkins said the Association would air the matter, and reach some decision this evening.

Last fall, residents in the area of Larchmont and Nimitz had the same difficulty. However, Stoneson has since graded and planted the slopes in that district.

Other business on the agenda of the Association this evening includes:

1. A report on the recreation program by Director Terzian.
2. Action on placing of safety signs by police throughout Broadmoor.
3. A further discussion of a proposed "tots" playground.
4. A discussion of the dog problem. Jenkins reports he receives a great number of complaints from people who wish to limit pooches to their own yards.

Broadmoor Church Hosts Caravaners

Five "Caravaners" will be with the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church July 15 to July 29. The Rev. John Glasse announced this week.

The Caravaners are 250 young college people from various parts of America who give eight weeks of their summer time to helping with a wide variety of projects in the churches to which assigned.

Families willing to provide room, or meals for one, or more of these young people during any part of their time here are asked to contact Rev. Glasse as soon as possible at Plaza 5-1334.

Meanwhile, Memory Gomez, sparkplug of the choir, is on vacation near Yosemite this week. Sliding over into the director's chair in her absence will be Don Hager, baritone.

Boys and girls who have finished the third, fourth and fifth grades are eligible to attend San Francisco Presbytery's Junior Camps. The schedule of the camp is well rounded, and includes hiking, swimming, camp games, campfire programs and crafts.

The first session begins July 17 to 23 at Westminster Woods near Sebastopol. Rev. Glasse can give further information on the camp.

The whist is to be held in Holy Angels church, Colma, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

All residents of Daly City and Colma are cordially invited to attend the affair.

Recorder's Office Now Twice As Busy

Paper work almost doubled in the county recorder's office last month as compared to one year ago, Ruth Kirste, recorder, reported today.

During June, 1950, the office handled 7,135 papers and collected $19,725 in fees as compared with 4,871 papers and $12,674 for June, 1949.

However, cupid slowed down somewhat with 159 marriages last month to 174 for June, 1949.

COLMA --- BROADMOOR GARDEN VILLAGE

Dear Deer Proves Testy; Trees Colma Woman

Not so sure that all deer are dear today is Miss Pauline Praafteing, 30, of Colma, who was treed for nine hours Sunday by a 100-pound buck.

Miss Praafteing and Miss Hazel Eggett, 38, of San Francisco were hiking near Lake Alpine on Mt. Tamalpais at 6 p.m. Saturday when the buck deer met them on a trail.

Lowering its head, the animal charged, and knocked the pack from Miss Eggett's back.

The two women dashed for a rocky ledge and scrambled up a tree. But instead of leaving, the deer circled the tree for some nine hours.

Early Sunday morning game wardens, looking for poachers, spotted the two women in the tree. They helped them down, and the deer disappeared in the woods.

However, as they were walking down a trail, the buck suddenly burst from a clump of trees and drove his antlers into the back of one of the wardens, inflicting a slight wound.

The two wardens then turned their guns on the deer.

Today Miss Praafteing has memories, and the residents of Marin County Hospital are enjoying deer meat for dinner.

Ray Logan Spends Time In Hospital

Ray Logan, 512 90th, Broadmoor, is in the French hospital today, following an operation last Friday.

Mrs. Logan reports her husband, who is active in American Legion affairs, is doing nicely and probably will be home by the end of the week.

Until Logan is back on his feet, news of Broadmoor Legion Post No. 824 will be somewhat limited. For the past several weeks Logan has been sending in news of his organization to the Daly City Record.

Young People To Lead Services

Six young people will almost "take over" the service at 11:15 this Sunday morning in the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian Church, according to the Rev. John A. Glasse, minister of the church.

Miss Marie Jean Glasse will report on her attendance with 2,000 other Presbyterian young people at the Westminster Fellowship National Assembly in Grinnell, Iowa; and other parts in the service will be taken by the five Caravaners who will be guests of the local church for the next two weeks, these college-age young people being Miss Carol Hoff of Phoenix, Arizona, Miss Virginia Booz of Wilmette, Illinois, Miss Judy Morrison of Berkeley, Charles Lanew of Iowa City, Iowa, and Robert Gee of San Francisco.

This service will inaugurate the two-week intensive youth program to be presented by the Caravaners and the local church youth leaders, and the church invites adults and young people alike to attend this unusual but meaningful service.

Kids' Movies Mark Second Broadmoor Year

This Saturday morning from 10 to 12 marks the beginning of the second year of movie programs arranged especially for the children of the Broadmoor and Garden Village communities.

The films are presented in the Community Presbyterian Church by the Rev. John A. Glasse for children, regardless of creed, as a community service in cooperation with parents favoring such a project.

During the past year a show has been provided every Saturday morning, with cartoons and serials and educational as well as feature films of great variety. Each child is asked to bring a "silver offering," usually a dime, with which the minister rents films which he augments with free films supplied by commercial institutions to round out the two-hour show.

"Lil Abner" will be the full-length feature in this anniversary show, and a surprise souvenir for each child will also be part of the celebration. These shows are held in the Community Church, on 87th west of Junipero Serra.

CHIEF DEPUTY

County Recorder Ruth Kirste announced today she will appoint Mrs. Eleanore M. Barteaux as her chief deputy, when that civil service-exempt position is created August 5.

At the present time Mrs. Barteaux is serving in the office as stenographer-clerk, grade two.

In accepting the new post Mrs. Barteaux will relinquish her present job, which is civil service, and be placed to the civil service employment list. The chief deputy's position is being created by the board of supervisors at Miss Kirste's request, and they have set the salary at $351 a month. It is in keeping with existing policy in other county offices, where officials are permitted one non-civil service aide.

In announcing her intention to appoint Mrs. Barteaux, Miss Kirste said she is doing so because of her efficient and loyal service in the department.

"In the six years Mrs. Barteaux has been in this office," the county recorder said, "she has become thoroughly familiar with every phase of the work, and has performed her duties exceptionally well. She has been of invaluable assistance to me since I was named county recorder last year, to succeed the late Clark Rice. Mrs. Barteaux has earned this promotion, and I am happy that I can give it to her."

Miss Kirste was elected to continue as county recorder at the June 6 primary.

Mrs. Barteaux is a native of Redwood City, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Thimble, and a graduate of the Sequoia high school. She served 15 years as cashier for the California Wool Growers Association in San Francisco, before coming to the recorder's office. She is past guardian neighbor of the Golden West, and the Young Ladies Institute. She resides with her husband, Burton, at 291 Grand street in Redwood City.

last week.

Mrs. Julia Bertini was guest of honor at a surprise bridal shower given by her sister, Miss Emelia Bertini last Saturday, at the home of Mrs. E. Franzola, Colma.

BAYSHORE

VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUNiper 4-6449

Our Water Department has started work on their new six-inch line. It runs on Geneva avenue from Rio Verde street up to Castilla.

Up until now, we have had no fire hydrants of our own in that section except the hydrant in front of the Cow Palace. This new line will undoubtedly mean our own hydrants up there at a later date.

A new appointment has been made on our Fire Commission. Ted Yaley is selling his home and moving out of the valley. He is being replaced by Donald P. Vallerio of 822 Scherwin street. Mr. Vallerio hasn't set in on a meeting as yet, but we wish him all the good wishes there are.

Vacation News:

Carlos and Melba Alt, popular valley work leader, spent the 4th week end in Fresno with Carl's people and brought their little girl back with them. Sharen Ann had been visiting with grandma for two weeks.

The J. Armos and A. King families spent a week at Twin Lakes, catching up on their trout fishing. Mary Ellen Dirks is in Utah for a couple of weeks, visiting her father and brothers.

The Dietrich family of 1621 Scherwin street are on their summer vacation in Lake county.

Going Away:

The Lou Sousa's are moving to Los Angeles and going into the Real Estate business. They are getting a running start too. They are going into business with her father, who has been established there for some time. As an added attraction, pop is presenting them with a brand new home down there, and that's as nice a development as you are apt to find anywhere.

Captain Tistat of 974 Scherwin street is moving out of the valley also. The Captain is in the Army, and that job doesn't make for much permanence.

We told you last week that Partridge street was a through street to Bayshore highway. Seems that ain't so. When it gets beyond Schwerin street, it becomes Main street, so it's Main street that goes through to Bayshore.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club has a picnic scheduled for this Sunday at Marsh Springs. The Springs are across the bay, out of Walnut Creek, and a peach of a picnic spot for any of you looking for a new stamping ground.

Jimmie Throne is sporting a pip of a black eye. He blamed it on his wife, then swung to the old door gag and stuck to it. Will truth ever out?

Harry (Wimpy) Olaf showed up with his new glo-socks and glo-suit at Searsville Lake and we hear that he made quite an impression. I for one don't doubt it a bit.

Bert Ford lost a part of his fence the other day. Seems that one of the neighbors was burning some trash, and thinking the fire had died down, he went to town. When Bert looked out his window, the flames were leaping high in the air, and headed for the house. Bert and his grandson played firemen, and got the fire under control.

The Fire Dept. reported a fire on MacDonald. The Renolds place at 111 MacDonald caught fire when the chimney flue went fluey. Burned out the center partitions in the house, but the loss wasn't too bad.

The C. Higgins celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary on the 12 of July. Anna said that she was taking it easy this year, but she certainly expected to celebrate her Silver anniversary next year.

We hear that the vegetable man street is moving out of the valley also. The Captain is in the Army,

COLMA COUNCIL MEET

City Appoints First Full Time Planning Commission In Its History

Playground Facilities Offered Broadmoor Children

Playground facilities and a full-time instructor are now available for all Broadmoor - Garden Village youngsters.

The playground at the Broadmoor Community center, 87th and White, is open six days a week from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Armen Terzian is in charge of the field and various playground activities.

Any boy or girl between the ages of three and 16 is invited to come down to the field.

To date Terzian reports there hasn't been enough boys or girls of one age group to form any teams, but he is hoping for a better showing within the next few weeks.

The Sault Ste. Marie canal, connecting Lakes Superior and Huron, is the busiest in the world.

The attendance at the Summer Bible School at the Baptist Church seems to be about the only thing that is holding up in the kid department. They reported an attendance of 120 last Tuesday morning.

Priscella Widenham celebrated her sixth birthday with a party July 11. The youngsters turned out in droves, and the aftermath continued late.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Frances McHugh, 216 N. Mayfair, are the proud parents today of their second son, Young Dennis Warren was born July 4 at the University of California hospital. His older brother's name is Gregory. Mrs. McHugh is the former Marjorie Schreffer of Daly City.

Colma has its first planning commission today, and already plans are being made for the improvement of the community.

The commission, the first in Colma's history, was created by an ordinance last month, and approved at Wednesday's regular city council meeting.

Seven men are on the board, including: Bradford Welch, San Mateo florist; Kenneth Martin, engineer at Holy Cross; Jay Jensen, Olivet Memorial Park official; John Newton, Colma florist; Ray Smith, superintendent of Woodlawn Memorial Park; Russell Antronci, monument business; and Earle Taylor, Cypress Lawn official.

One of the first things the body will consider is the beautification of El Camino Real through Colma. This strip of land, under the jurisdiction of the Division of Highways, is now bare.

Colma's Mayor John Price said the commission would study plans for planting the strip with flowers and trees.

Also, up for discussion will be the application of a drive-in theatre concern for a $150,000 theatre between Junipero Serra and El Camino Real near the Woodlawn cemetery. The application was made last March, and to date has met with disapproval by most city officials.

While Colma has had an unofficial planning board for many years, the new body will hold regular meetings for the express purpose of beautifying Colma.

The first meeting is to be held this Monday, July 17, at the city hall, beginning at 8 p.m. At that time the board will appoint a chairman, and decide on a regular meeting day.

The commission will have no legislative powers, but its recommendations to the city council will generally be followed.

WESTLAKE WHIRL

by Marian Christians

PLaza 5-0946

Tom Brewer, 98 Wilshire avenue, has just come home after occupying one of the choice suites at Mt. Zion hospital where he underwent surgery. His neighbors were surely sympathizing, as Tom was in the process of reducing a 12-cubic-yard pile of topsoil to a more level state.

Was anyone else unfortunate enough to be in Westlake June 3 to witness the complete desolation that seemed to have taken over the tract? With the majority of people away for July 4, and the one-day carpenter strike, things were surely quiet.

If any of you other wives have had to go through the hectic process of getting a husband off on a tour of active duty (in the middle or a siege of flu you have my sympathy.

First you put in CKC's, and then you re-read your orders and take them out — not required. Guess we'll wear Class B's. No, probably to hot to drive in.

We'll wear civvies, take Class B's and fatigues, and leave Class A's at home. This is a working tour.

And so it goes, with the final packing of the footlocker accomplished in an hour, and all to do over again in September.

Frank and Vivian Gromm and their children, Michelle and Frankie Jr., of Lake Vista avenue, are vacationing at Twin Harte, swimming, sunbathing and being lazy in general.

Lee Bowman Lester III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lester, 114 Westdale avenue, entertained 12 of his friends at his third birthday party July 1. Mrs. Lester had a delicious cake, plus ice cream for all his playmates, and she reports they enjoyed themselves as do all children at birthday parties.

"Record" Reminiscence

From the "Record" 10 Years Ago July 10, 1940

Vividly demonstrating the expansion of the community during the last year, the 1940 assessed valuation for Daly City is $4,016,080 this year. The four million figure is a jump of $97,755 over assessed valuations here last year.

Bernard McDermot, a 15-year-old Daly City boy, this week beat all other San Francisco News carriers to take first place in the News summer contest.

Hugh H. Smith, chairman of the board of supervisors, was reported in reliable sources this week to have told his friends that he planned to become a candidate for county executive in 1942.

Mrs. Marie Compani, 11 Miriam street, was showered with many lovely gifts recently at a surprise baby shower at the home of Mrs. Mary Compani, San Francisco.

German Catholic Picnic Set Sunday

The German Catholic Federation of California and the National Catholic Women's Union will hold their annual joint picnic next Sunday (July 16) at Atherton Park on El Camino Real, it was announced by Rudolph Scheperger, president of the German Federation.

Mrs. Joseph Mulcahy, president of the National Catholic Women's Union, women's auxiliary of the Federation, assisted by Henry Schroer, head a large committee in planning the huge outing, which marks the 51st anniversary of the founding of the German Catholic group. Some 5,000 members of both organizations are expected to come from all parts of California to attend the gathering, Mr. Scheperger said.

Although most of the all-day celebration will be devoted to a good Old Country festival spirit of "Echter Deutscher Gemuetlichkeit" at which plenty of foaming old Gambrinus will flow, plans will also be discussed for the forthcoming state convention of the combined women's and men's organizations who will meet in a joint convocation in San Francisco at St. Anthony's Parish auditorium on Saturday and Sunday, September 2 and 3.

Branches of the two Catholic groups are located in Sacramento, San Jose, Oakland, Los Angeles.

Revival Becoming More Popular

The intense interest in world conditions which has called forth an outpouring of spiritual feeling is manifest in the record-shattering crowds attending the three-week interchurch revival here, Dr. Hyman Appelmann said.

"Our meetings have been characterized by audiences 50 to 75 per cent larger than in the past," the widely-known evangelist added. "I believe the need for spiritual expression during a time of world conflict is evidenced by the increased attendance."

Dr. Appelmann, who was a noted Jewish lawyer before becoming one of the nation's outstanding evangelists, is addressing huge crowds nightly. He speaks at the First Baptist Church, Octavia and Market, Monday and Tuesday nights and at the Coliseum Bowl, 48 11th St., the rest of the week. His sermons are heard nightly at 7:30 and on Sundays at 2:30 and 8:45 p.m.

Appearing with Dr. Appelmann at the revival programs are a number of talented performers from all over the nation, including the famous Mixed Music Ensemble of the Grand Rapids (Mich.) School of the Bible. The meetings are sponsored by churchmen, pastors and laymen from thirty San Francisco churches.

LAKE FISHING GOOD IN MONO COUNTY

Lake fishing has been fair to good during the past week on the smaller lakes of Mono county, according to the National Automobile Club. Several limits have been taken but the fish are not running too large.

GRAND TREASURER

Hillcrest Circle No. 143, UAOD, held a reception recently for their secretary, Grace Hill, who was elected for the second time Grand Treasurer of the Grand Circle.

When she has served for five years in this capacity she will become a past Grand Arch Druidess, which is the highest honor that can be attained.

The other delegates to the convention, Lillian Felch, Agnes Prescott, Winifred Evans and Clara Poket, were also honored.

The reception was attended by: Past Grand Arch Druidess Mary Neil, who is Grace Hill's sponsor; Grand Second Bard Sarah Brundage; Grand Guardian Louise Esch; Grand Trusette Laura Lawler and Grand Auditor Edith Olfendahl.

Many members of other circles were also present to honor Sister Hill.

A letter from the Grand Arch Druidess was read, appointing Lillian Felch as Deputy Grand Arch Druidess of Hillcrest Circle.

This choice was met with the heartiest approval as Sister Felch is one of the most popular members of the circle.

Court St. Mary CDA Members Making Bandages For Lepers; Need Material

By MRS. ARTHUR HEYDEN

Pledging their time to making bandages for the patients of Uganda and Kenya Leperosarian, members of Court St. Mary No. 1155, CDA will be kept busy during the summer months.

The colony, where the bandages are sent, is run by the sisters of the third order of St. Francis.

This Mission was started in Uganda on the primitive shores of Lake Victoria in British East Africa by six brave nuns, dedicated to work among natives afflicted with leprosy.

The Sister in charge of the little band is Mother Paul of New York, who has watched the colony grow from a single grass hut to the largest Catholic hospital in the country with 160 beds.

A European staff of doctors, eight European sisters, and 27 trained African staff members man the hospital.

The hospital also includes a complete training school for nurses and midwives, 20 dispensaries, and two leper settlements, treating approximately 5,000 lepers a month.

There are also 24 primary schools, four secondary schools, and four teachers training schools.

There also has come into being since 1923 a community of African sisters now numbering 208.

At present, the Bishop of Uganda is visiting the hierarchy of the United States, at the request of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, who along with the world has commented on the work of the missions.

Today, with the marvelous progress of medical science, great hope has been given leprosy sufferers who in early days were considered incurable, and now find they can be cured if given treatment in time.

There are 120,000 lepers awaiting help in this small country alone, while only about one-half per cent are being treated because of insufficient funds and medicine.

There is no charge in these hospitals which are kept up by donors. Catholic, Protestant and Mohammedan are taken in, as their turn comes.

We can help to alleviate pain and discomfort of these children and adults by making up bandages in various lengths and widths, with which the patients bind up their wounds.

One bandage is allotted a person per year, it being their obligation to care with its laundering, and so on. It is more precious than gold to these untouchables.

So, go through your linen closets, and donate your old sheets and pillow cases to the great cause which the ladies, cut with pinking shears and sew together in required lengths.

We can also use cancelled stamps.

Marine Sgt. Takes Over Lutheran Church Scouts

The Lutheran Church of Our Savior, Garfield and Junipero

Serra boulevard, recently had the good fortune of having Marine Sergeant Wayne Kohagen take over the leadership of Boy Scout Troop No. 82.

More than 25 boys are registered in this troop sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood of the church, of which Mr. Kohagen is an active member. Not long ago Mr. Kohagen and his assistant, D. W. Slaymon, took this group of boys to Dr. Earl White's summer home in Big Basin for a week-end outing. And this coming week end (July 15-16) the group will scout together at the Presidio. Mr. Kohagen has interested several of these Scouts to assist the Brotherhood men in caring for the spacious lawn on the church property. Regular Scout meeting is held every Thursday evening at 7:30.

At the June election, Miss Marian Tse, of the Lutheran Church of Our Savior, was elected president of the combined Lutheran League of three Lutheran churches. These three churches (Sunset, Grace and Our Savior) take turns in being host to this group of teenagers.

Herb Allen Back From First Motorcycle Trip Ever Made Over New Alcan Highway

By PAGE CORNER

Herb Allen, San Francisco, member of the San Francisco Motorcycle Club, is back this week from the first motorcycle trip ever made over the Alcan Highway.

This is of special interest to Daly City residents, as Allen is well known in this community among the motorcycle fans.

He left San Francisco on Sunday, June 11, 1950, to make a round trip to Fairbanks Alaska via the Alcan highway. He took highway 99 to Medford, Ore., where he stopped to have his cycle serviced and renew his acquaintance with Ernie Holbrook, speedway champion of a few years back, and now operator of a motorcycle shop in Medford.

He left Medford for Spokane, Wash., and between Medford and Eugene, Ore., he ran into a severe cloudburst. He continued on at greatly reduced speed until the storm cleared. He rode the Columbia river highway to Spokane, Wash., and had lots of bad riding because the road was under repair with loose sand and gravel. This gave Herb a chance to practice up a bit for the hundreds of miles of such road he later encountered.

Leaving Spokane he hit another rainstorm, but fairly good road, which held to the Canadian border. He entered Canada at Kingsgate and continued on to Calgary. More rain just before Calgary but by now Herb was used to it. From Calgary to Edmonton the road was excellent and Herb made very good time. At times when the scenery was good he slowed to 30 m.p.h. or so and took it all in.

On reaching Edmonton he had averaged about 400 miles per day. The last motorcycle shop was at Edmonton so Herb stopped to have his machine serviced before taking off on one of the greatest and most difficult rides of his lifetime. Leaving Edmonton behind, he continued on to Westlock where he left the last of the paved roads behind him. The road was very rough gravel and riding at any speed difficult. To make it worse he had a flat tire way out in the middle of nowhere. He got it fixed okay, as he was well prepared for any difficulty and continued on to the small town of Grand Prairie.

More of the same to Dawson Creek and the start of Alcan highway itself. After leaving Dawson Creek Herb had a flat tire. The shoulders of the road were very soft and made it necessary to change the tire right on the road. The mosquitoes were terrific and Herb says he was badly bitten before he could get that tire fixed. It took a half hour to pump up the tire with the pump he had. The stations at this point are 60 miles apart.

The only things obtainable at most are gas, oil, and food. Shortly after this he hit a bad lightning and thunder storm at a point called Steamboat Mountain. Up to now on this bad road he had only made about 150 miles per day. The road improved however, and for the rest of the trip to Fairbanks he averaged 426 miles per day. At times he was able to go 75 m.p.h. with no trouble.

Again at times he loafed along and took in the views. The mid-night sun was new to Herb and was most pleasant, and at one time he rode all night just to enjoy it and the effect it made on the mountains. He saw quite a few Indian people from time to time and they just didn't believe he had come that far on the cycle. Wild game crossed the road many times, among them some good size bears.

While Herb is a very sociable fellow, he did not feel he had the time to stop and get acquainted with them. He passed them so fast they probably thought he was a flying saucer. He might have gotten by though because with all his gear on he sure looked big as a bear. He wore a Navy all-weather suit most of the trip except when it became too warm. The temperatures he encountered were as high as 90 degrees and at times almost freezing in the high mountains.

Herb is known as Kewpie Allen to most of his friends, and with all his dress on he must have been quite a sight to the natives of this very remote part of the American continent. He said he had a good crowd to look him over almost everywhere he went. He saw very little other traffic on the Alcan Highway and his longest stretch was 102 miles between stations.

Herb rode an Indian Chief motorcycle. He used Indian Motorcycle oil on the trip whenever he could obtain it. He had no trouble with his machine except a loose carburetor screw and a broken headlight glass from the gravel which was sometimes as big as an egg. He carried complete spare parts except the major components of the machine. It would take from 2 to 4 weeks to obtain a part, so Herb took all he could carry. His expenses were low except in Alaska, where the prices were high. Eight dollars for a room at night in Whitehorse. The lowest was $1.00 along the highway. Food was from $1 to $2 per meal.

CID Reserve Unit Formed

Army anti-subversive work and criminal investigation in the Bay area is to be the principal business of a new Army reserve unit now being formed.

Lt. J. L. Levitt, 531 Chestnut avenue, San Bruno, will be in command. Ex-servicemen, including former military police, criminal investigation division and counter intelligence personnel, are urged to enlist in the reserve unit.

Although reserve corps age limits usually are 17 to 35, men up to 55 probably will be accepted for the CID training unit if they qualify through experience, training or aptitude, Levitt said.

Men interested in further information should contact Levitt at JU 8-7157, or Major Sam Wheeling at JU 8-1953.

Herb has ridden motorcycles since 1913. He has traveled all over the U. S. From east to west and from Canada to Mexico, many hundreds of thousands of miles. He has never had a serious accident in all that time. He has taken a few spills on his trips, but the latest is a good example. No accidents, not even minor, to Alaska and back to San Francisco.

Herb arrived back at Hap Jones Motorcycle Shop at 4 p.m. Saturday, July 1. Many friends were there to greet him and congratulate him on accomplishing such a difficult journey on a motorcycle. Asked why he rides motorcycles, and why he took such a trip on one, he replied, "I like the rugged life and wild country that I can enjoy and see from a motorcycle. I drive sensibly and though I have an automobile I very seldom use it."

Herb will be looking for new fields next year and we may hear of him trying the new border to border highway through Mexico. As long as he has his motorcycle waiting to take him he will be off to someplace on a new trip to see the rugged outdoors in some part of this hemisphere.

SM County Fair Grounds Better Than Ever

Extensive improvements are under way today at the San Mateo county fair grounds to ensure that the 16th annual Fair and Floral Fiesta which is to open there on September 8, shall have permanent utilities, abundant lighting and adequate protection from wind and dust.

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors already has opened bids for permanent electrical work to cost approximately $12,000 so as to provide lighting standards for the entire fair grounds, the expenditure coming from an allocation to the county from state funds.

The fairgrounds today are in a blaze of activity with bulldozers moving soil for a paved area to be used for an automobile show, top soil being added for landscaping, bases being made for electroliers, pedestrian walks paved, fences reinforced and extended as wind-breaks, permanent water outlets installed for the numerous garden displays, and new areas opened for exhibits and entertainment.

The entrance on the east side of the grounds, is to be banked with shrubs, flowers and trees by Jack Gibson, the Fair Association's landscape architect and by the exhibits of professional and amateur landscape architects. Pedestrian walks will skirt planted areas some thirty feet in width leading to the entrance of the fair building.

The floral fiesta, racing events, world famous entertainment as well as the industrial and agricultural displays comprising a major portion of the show will probably accommodate larger crowds now in view of census records which now show that in ten years to date 122,248 new people have located in San Mateo County while within a 25 mile radius of the fair grounds well over 300,000 new people have established homes. That means an average of 12,225 new residents per year in the county, 30,000 potential new patrons per year within one hour's ride of the fair grounds.

Stamp sales were down $213,502 to $1,740,117. The number of letters cancelled fell off 2,987,100 to 39,019,400. There was a decrease of 11.4 per cent in the pieces of par-

RC Man Urges Rent Control Ban

A move to remove rent controls in the unincorporated areas of San Mateo county was made this week by a Redwood City real estate man.

James A. Miller, operator of the William J. Dusek Agency, wrote the county board of supervisors that the removal of rent control would make older homes in the county available for rental to low income groups.

He also said he had asked the Redwood City city council to make a survey on whether rent controls should be removed in the city.

To date rent control has been lifted in Palo Alto and final action now is pending in Menlo Park.

Postal receipts for the San Francisco post office which includes Daly City, fell off 10.9 per cent for June, 1950, in comparison with June, 1949.

San Mateo Kennel Club Dog Show Stated July 30

Entries in the 1950 San Mateo Kennel Club Dog Show, to be held at Bay Meadows on July 30, are now being received from all parts of the United States and Canada. This was announced today by Lynn C. Sibley, president of the kennel club.

One of the nation's largest and best known all-breeds dog shows, this year's event will put in competition more than 1500 dogs representing more than 100 recognized breeds, Mr. Sibley said.

Combined with the San Mateo dog classic will be several specialty shows. Members of the Weimaraner Club of America will bring together the largest number of "Grey Ghosts" ever assembled in the United States, and the California Boxer Club will sponsor a specialty show of the country's top winning boxers.

Mr. Sibley also announced that dogs need not be registered or pedigreed to be eligible for the show. American Kennel Club rules list as ineligible only puppies under six months, mongrels and cross-bred dogs, he said.

The San Mateo Kennel Club will welcome all new exhibitors and will assist them in showing their dogs, Mr. Sibley said.

Deadline for entering dogs in the show is July 15. Entry blanks and information may be obtained from Mrs. Bernice Behrendt, superintendent of the show, at 518 Taylor Street, San Francisco, or by phoning ORdway 3-0327.

Bayshore Widening Held Up By State

San Mateo county officials today were seeking a method to untangle state red tape which may hold up the widening of Bayshore Highway near Brisbane for another year.

The action "followed an announcement this week by the State Highway Commission that relief for the county's worst bottleneck had been pigeonholed."

Taking immediate action, the county traffic safety commission has asked the supervisors to seek a meeting with Governor Earl Warren to force the vacillating policy of the highway commission to a head. Also, the county board has asked Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig to spur action in Sacramento.

Dolwig said the proposed widening issue would come up before the state highway commission at their July 27 meeting.

It was April 19 that the state commission said the 3.4-mile stretch of road would be widened from four lanes to six. Formal action was to follow, but this week the commission indicated the project had been shelved for at least another year. Reason for the action was given as lack of money.

Mumps Swell Daly City Sick Rolls In June

Streptococcus infection, mumps and chicken-pox were the principal diseases reported in Daly City last month, the San Mateo county Public Health division reported today.

There were three cases of mumps, two of streptococcus and one of chicken-pox.

Colma had two cases of chicken-pox and an equal number of cases of mumps.

Also, while there were two cases of tuberculosis reported in Daly City during May, there were none in June.

Realtors' Offices May Close Sundays

Real estate offices in northern San Mateo county soon may be closed on Sundays.

This week the North San Mateo County Board of Realtors, whose membership includes Daly City, Millbrae, Lomita Park, San Bruno, South San Francisco, Sharp Park and Edgemar, asked for the Sunday closing.

The request was made in a letter to all members of the board, which concludes:

"We can add to our prestige, to our dignity and to our reputation and truly elevate our work to that of professional status if we act like a professional and close our offices on Sundays and all holidays."

North County Officials Study State Tax Moneys

Calling for a more representative use of state tax money collected in north San Mateo cities, members of the League of California Cities this week asked for additional tax funds now going elsewhere.

The request followed a meeting of the group last Thursday night. The Council is made up of mayors and city councilmen from Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco, Millbrae and San Bruno.

Representatives at the meeting claimed that the tax money is not being appropriated fairly. They say that while one city may collect more than another, the money is divided equally between the two communities.

The matter will be brought up by the North County Council at the next meeting of the Peninsula League of California Cities.

Also, the council took action toward appointing a committee for an industrial survey in San Mateo county. Two councilmen from each city will be members.

Councilman Charles Elder, South San Francisco, is drawing up a letter to be sent to all cities in the county asking for their cooperation in the survey. The facts assembled will be made available to industries interested in locating here.

Salazar Family Visits Northwest

(Ed. Note — We will be glad to let the folks know how you enjoyed YOUR vacation. Why not drop us a line, and we will put the details of your vacation on this page?)

Tony and Erma Salazar, 150 Evergreen avenue, have just returned from a 10-day vacation in the northwest, visiting such places as Emmett, Idaho, where Mrs. Salazar was born. This was the first time she had been back since she was two years old and found it has not progressed much since, but found the surrounding country very beautiful and scenic.

From Idaho they toured to Seattle, and took the boat trip to Victoria, B.C. On the boat they met two young ladies who remarked that they were along way from home and on inquiring where they were from found they were from Moltke street in Daly City, but didn't catch their name. (Small world.) Of course they were glad to see someone from home and they were touring on to Lake Louise and Banff.

After returning from scenic Victoria by boat, we returned via Mt. Rainier and stopped at the Flying H Dude Ranch, which we can highly recommend as a wonderful place to spend a diversified vacation. The food was excellent, the price right and the scenery out of this world and a real place to relax. The dude ranch is located four miles from Naches, Washington, on the Mt. Rainier road. We enjoyed our stay there and our trip through Mt. Rainier. There was plenty of snow but the weather was very warm. We visited at Mt. Hood, but due to the fact they were fixing the road it was a hard climb to Timberline lodge at the base of Mt. Hood, and the snow melting made it a perilous drive.

For Ed Nienstiel's benefit, we saw trout at Hat Creek near Alturas that would make his Memorial Day catch look like minnows, so if he wants to get in some good fishing that is the place to get it.

Naturally, we are glad to get back to Daly City, found everything in order and the fog sure felt good after all that heat and we do mean heat, as it was 115 at Red Bluff and Redding and not a bit of wind.

Next year we hope we will have more time and see more country.

Is A Relative In Korea? The Red Cross Knows

Many inquiries regarding servicemen and civilians in the Korean War Theatre are being received by Home Service Department of the San Mateo County Chapter, American Red Cross according to Mr. J. Ed McClellan, Home Service Chairman.

"Our Department," McClellan said today, "will be glad to help anyone wishing to place an inquiry regarding armed forces personnel in Japan and Korea, and American civilians being evacuated from the war area. We have received information from American National Red Cross as to where and how various types of inquiries should be placed. This information will be given on request."

$12 Million Port Planned For RC

Redwood City officials today were investigating plans for a $12,500,000 development of that city's seaport.

If carried out, the plan will triple the present Redwood City port facilities and establish it as a major Pacific Coast port.

Called for are:

1. Establishment of Bair Island, across from the port, as a major industrial center.

2. Establishment of specialized industries as oil companies, lumber yards, feed mills, paper mills, and so on which demand dock facilities for heavy raw cargo.

The $12,500,000 estimate was made on the basis of $50,000 per acre cost of developing the Bair Island Corporation property. It includes cost of bulkheads, filling, grading and construction of plants. It does not include the cost of widening the channel.

THE OLD ADAGE

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can.

The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren—they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches—then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DAILY CITY PLAYGROUND ACTIVITIES

LINCOLN PLAYGROUND By Bucky Linhares

The weather was slightly overcast this week; nevertheless, the attendance was as high as ever. A variety of sports were played running from basketball, softball and ping-pong to football, paddle tennis and checkers.

On Friday, July 7, Lincoln Park entered three contestants in the Paddle Tennis Tournament at Jefferson High School to play in the city-wide paddle tennis tournament.

The small children have been playing kickball, jump rope, basketball type games and are building and playing in the sand box. The junior leaders, Betty Scott, Arlene Callan, Carol Glover and Arlene Trapp, have been leading children and girls for the coming trackmeet and other city-wide events.

JEFFERSON HIGH By Mary Falbo

The girls' softball team is finally going to play the Colma team this Wednesday at 7 p.m. This will be their first practice game.

CROCKER PLAYGROUND By Regina Warchol

The Crocker Playground had their first league baseball game this week. The Crocker Wildcats, a junior team, played Broadmoor on Tuesday, July 6. The Crocker Wildcats won by a score of 7 to 2. The winning pitcher was Whitey Hackman, although Robert Dickson, the captain of our team, helped in the 7th inning. Crocker's next game is this coming Tuesday at Jefferson. The score for the last game was:

Crocker — 7 runs — 18 hits — 0 errors.

Broadmoor — 2 runs — 5 hits — 0 errors.

Crocker also had a pet show Friday afternoon at 2:30. Certificates and candy was given out as prizes. The contestants were 16 dogs, 2 chickens, a duck, 4 fish bowls, a Siamese cat, 2 bees and a turtle. Everyone received prizes, but the first prize for the dogs went to Dave Owens for his English Bulldog, Bob, who was a 2½-year-old pedigree weighing 75 pounds. Whitey Heckman's Siamese cat won first prize for the cats, and a beautiful fish bowl with goldfish won first prize for Susan Dyker.

CRAFT CENTERS By James Kraywinkel

There are still new things being done at the craft centers. Last week at Peoria, the children made hats, cut out the heads, bodies, etc. and then made a step fold for the neck. Braiding has been a popular pastime, so if you like to braid, come and get started. The older girls are making things from felt now, such as purses and head bands.

The Parkview center is keeping the children busy making wall plaques, purses from felt, statues, bracelets and braiding. Some leather tooling was started last week and those who enjoy this work may come and start Monday. We have a limited supply of leather, but small projects can be made.

Come out, children, to the craft centers — we'll find something for you to do.

charged and butted him in the rear most part of his anatomy. As deer horns are sharp it hurt Al's pride to see the least so he immediately drew his .38 and settled the duel.

Jimmy Brush writes from Yosemite that the trout are hitting very well and he snagged a nice 19-inch Rainbow that weighed 2 pounds this week. Lots of small pan fish also.

Harry Johnson and his family of fishermen again fished the Lyons Dam area and were ready to quit fishing when the youngest, Spook, took a nice 12-inch. Then they really folded up and left the place. Spook is only 7 years old. They also fished the Mokelumne River and finally took 5 fish.

My friend Lorry Goldstein was at the usual haunts on the Feather River and with our Fly, and Golden Feather, landed several nice limits while on his vacation last week. The fish were 13- to 19-inch fish.

Summer Camps For City Dwellers

"Summer Camps for City Dwellers," in the current issue of California Magazine of the Pacific, relates California municipalities' efforts to provide inexpensive summer mountain recreation for their residents.

In addition to the City and County of San Francisco, which maintains Camp Mather on the pine-fringed rim of the Tuolumne River gorge near the boundary of Yosemite National Park, Oakland, Berkeley, Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno and Los Angeles, and Kern and Riverside counties operate municipal camp sites.

Operation of San Francisco's Camp Mather is, according to Supervisor Don Fazackerley, author of the article, similar to that of other municipally maintained summer camp areas, although there are variances in rates charged and admission requirements.

And, like Camp Mather, says Supervisor Fazackerley, similar summer camps are bursting at the seams, unable to accommodate all who would like to use the facilities during the short summer period.

"Camp Mather offers recreation for every member of the family," Supervisor Fazackerley said. "With summer vacation season at hand, San Francisco families are again headed for the recreation regions of the State and Camp Mather, with accommodations for 300 persons, is a popular destination for hundreds of our citizens."

"In addition the usual mountain recreation activities, a caravan trip is made twice weekly to nearby O'Shaughnessy Dam and the vast rock-walled Hetch Hetchy Reservoir which the dam impounds. Thus San Franciscans get first hand knowledge of the source of the city's water. Campfire programs, dance tournaments, singing and other group social activities provide additional pleasure."

"Planning and supervising all this activity is a recreation director who is a staff member of the Recreation Commission and who is assisted each year by a group of college men and women who plan the summer camps."

Faculty And Daly City Hardware Take Early Lead With 2-0 Record

By Milton Tromborg

As far as games won and lost, the Faculty nine of Jefferson High and Daly City Hardware go into a tie, both with a 2 won and 0 lost record.

Losing 1 and winning 1, Colma Fire Department and Scout Dads are in second place, while the Amazon A.C. is in third place with a 1-0 record.

Here is the complete standings as of last Tuesday night, July 11.

	Won	Lost
1. Faculty	2	0
2. D. C. Hardware	2	0
3. Colma Fire	1	1
4. Scout Dads	1	1
5. Amazon A.C.	1	0
6. Eagles	1	2
7. D. C. Fire	0	2
8. Mid City	0	2

Mid City Takes Second Defeat 8-4

Scoring 1 run in the first inning and 3 in the sixth meant nothing to Scout Dads as they went on to win 8-4. Playing under a high fog, the Scout Dads, behind the pitching of Gensel, had no trouble whatsoever in holding down the Mid Cities.

The Scout Dads were behind a 1-0 score going into the 4th frame but then the roof fell in. Four errors, 1 walk, and 3 hits scored 6 big fat runs and that's all there was to it. Gensel was the winning pitcher, Franklin the loser.

Faculty Nine Set Back Eagles 22-5

Scoring 13 runs in the 4th inning, undefeated, and untied, the Faculty team romped over the Daly City Eagles by the score of 22-5 last Thursday night, July 6.

The Faculty nine got off to a 1-0 margin in the second inning, leading 2-1, then at the first half of the third frame, were behind 4-2.

Looking over the 1 run lead that the Eagles held on them, the Faculty nine went to work on starting pitcher Strafford. They scored 7 runs after going through the line-up 1 1/2 times.

The top thrill of the night came when Joe McGrath of the Faculty got to first base on a walk. Then as the pitcher threw to the plate, McGrath took off for second base. The batter took a swing and missed the ball by a foot, with McGrath safe on second, but, thinking that the batter fouled the ball, McGrath trotted back to first base and was called safe on first. McGrath had stolen first base, which very seldom is seen in the game of baseball. The game was called after 4 innings because of darkness.

Colma Fire Edged by Home Run

With the ball game all tied up in the 4th inning, ex-Jefferson baseballer Harold Mossman laced into one of Lou Nannine's fast balls for a home run in left field scoring two teammates before him, giving the D. C. Hardware the game 8-4.

The game was by far one of the most thrilling games ever seen on the field.

It was quite a pitchers' duel between Lou Nannine of Colma and Underwood of the Hardware nine. With both taking a ribbing on the mound from all spectators, they hurled good ball, with each giving in with 9 hits.

Lou Nannine found Pitcher Underwood asleep in the third inning. With the bags loaded, and Lou on third base, Lou called over to Underwood and asked him to throw him the ball. Underwood, who had other things on his mind but the game, turned around and did so, thus letting Lou come in to score. After taking a pretty big ribbing from the crowd, Underwood turned back on the mound and sent 3 batters down swinging in a row to end the inning.

Eagles Win by Football Score 34-7

What turned out to be a football score more than a softball score, the Daly City Eagles outthrew and outscored the Daly City Fire Department to win 34-7. This is the highest score ever to be racked up in the league, along with the hits, 29 in all.

Thirteen Eagles saw action in the game, with each getting at least 1 hit in the game.

The top hitter of the night was shortstop Carter, who banged out 4 for 4, all line-drive singles. Romero was the winning pitcher, Statter the losing pitcher.

Gelsi's Downs Half Moon Bay

Playing before a good-sized crowd last Sunday, Gelsi's Liquors downed Half Moon Bay 4 to 3.

Gelsi's showed all their fire in the first two frames, bringing in three runs in the first inning, and one run in the second. Domecus was the star of the day, driving a long triple into the field, and getting two hits.

Pitching for Gelsi's was White, who struck out 15 of the boys from Half Moon Bay, and all the runs against him were far from earned.

Daly City Sportswomen Find Crab Is A Complicated, Meatless Crustacean

By Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

The long-planned crab fishing trip of the Daly City Sportswomen was successful and enjoyable.

Those of us who were novices, and all of us were, except Mary Shalkowski, learned some interesting things about crab fishing, too. For instance, we learned, that the bay crabs are the soft-shelled crabs, and that they don't become the large hard-shelled crabs till they have taken a trip in the ocean, when the shells harden and the claws and legs fill with firm meat. In the soft shells there is very little meat, even in the large claws and body, and practically nothing in the small legs. With a haul of seven crabs to be split between four of us, we novices thought we really had something, but alas! two crabs yielded about three tablespoons of meat.

Mary, having crab fished many times, generously insisted we novices divide up the catch, which gave us two apiece, Mary taking the odd one and some large claws taken from the red crabs. We learned too that the large claws are the only edible portion of the red crabs, the rest being mostly water. The claws are removed and the red crabs thrown back into the bay to grow more claws. We saw some that were growing new claws. One claw would be big, strong and dangerous, and on the other side a little white puny claw about half the size of the good one would be growing out. Nature is a wonderful thing.

Two Jeff High Men, Lunghi - Cereghino To Play In All-Star Game July 23

By Milton Tromborg

Next Sunday afternoon, July 23, at Seals Stadium, will find two Daly City boys playing in the fifth Annual Examiner All-Star game, these being Ed Cereghino and Don Lunghi.

Both of these boys earned their positions by putting on stunning performances in two tryout sessions, one here in Daly City, and one in Redwood City.

This is the first time that Don Lunghi has made the team, while Ed Cereghino is going into his third year.

Lunghi, whose big bat power housed the Jefferson high Indians to the P.A.L. title a few months ago, will start the game off in center field, which was his home reservation for Jefferson for three years.

Lunghi is by far one of the most outstanding athletes ever seen in the history of Jefferson. In his four years there, he made the All-PAL football team twice, 1948 and 1949. This year, he placed on team number one on the All-PAL nine. This is quite an honor, for the P.A.L. is about one of the roughest leagues around the northern part of California.

Lunghi is one of the hardest batters to pitch too. In P.A.L. play, he received more walks than any other player in the league. His bat was dead during regular season, but then in the playoff series, Lunghi came back to hit Jeff to the title.

If anyone deserves a chance to play in the All-Star game it's Lunghi by far, for he is not only a great athlete but a great sportsman, on and off the field.

Making his third appearance, Ed Cereghino, another of Coach Glenn South's boys, will start off the game.

There is not much that we have to say about Cereghino, just let records do the talking. There is little doubt that Ed is one of the most sought-out ball players in the bay area.

He ended the season with Jefferson with a 10 won and 3 lost record, with one of the defeats being a 2-bitter. Cereghino had one of the highest strike-out records of any pitcher in the league, 144 in 84 innings on the mound.

In pro ball this year, he has won 3, lost 0. In one game he struck out 18, and in another he struck out 20. "Can he pitch?"

Cereghino will take the mound for the north invaders next Sunday, and is facing another right-hander, Dick Hanlon of Lincoln. The north has always been weak in pitching and have never been favored to win, but this year they are favored, and if Cereghino has one of his days, they will come out the victor.

The outstanding player from each team will be awarded a trip back east to play in the East-West All-Star game in the Polo grounds.

So, remember next Sunday afternoon at Seals Stadium, the Examiner All-Star game. The game is for free, so come one, come all. See two Jefferson lads in action.

Ralph's Cleaners Enter Two New Softball Leagues

Playing their first game in the City-Wide San Francisco Softball League Friday night will be Ralph's Cleaners softball nine.

The first fight will be with Westcoast Industries at Ralph Playground. Time of play is scheduled at 7:30 p.m.

Also, next Tuesday Ralph's will enter in a second league, the South San Francisco Summer League. The first game will be Tuesday evening at 8:40 o'clock on the South City field, Orange avenue. Opposing the Cleaners will be the highly-praised Windbreakers.

Ralph's finished up the first South City softball league with two wins and three losses. Last Monday's game was won by default, as the Letterman Hospital team failed to appear.

Sarto Boys Win One, Drop One

With the bases loaded, the score tied 5 to 5 in the seventh, Benny Parodi stepped up to bat and drove in a homer.

That was the turning point last Sunday in the game between Sarto A.C. and Neuwell Liquors. When the final run was in, Sarto A.C. came out with 10 runs to Neuwell's 5.

On the mound for Sarto A.C. was Babe Ottoneo, who allowed only two hits.

Sarto's didn't make out as well as their "brothers," dropping a game 6 to 5 to Mission Kiwanis last Sunday. This was a hard-fought battle which went into the eleventh inning before a Kiwanis batter drove one over the short-stop's head for the winning run.

Pitching for Sarto's was Henry Morgan.

This Friday, July 14, Sarto's will meet the Park Presidio at Funston at 7:15 p.m.

Marie's Place Whitewashes Enamel Team

By Angelo Craviatto

Sunday, Marie's Place nine collected eleven hits and eight runs to climb to their third straight victory over Industrial Enamel, 8 to 1.

Up to the eighth inning it was a pitcher's battle with Donley and Hansen. In the eighth, Hansen, tired under the strain, gave up three hits and four runs. Again in the ninth, Marie's Place nine got two more runs on two hits.

Even though it was a pitcher's battle for seven innings Donley deserved the victory for striking out sixteen of the thirty-six men to face him and allowing five hits. He helped his own cause to victory by collecting two hits and scoring twice.

This team has proven itself to collect hits and make them turn into runs not like the team of 1949, when player after player died in vain on the bases.

On the mound this Sunday will be Aldo Canepa, who a Sunday back pitched himself to a two to one victory over Lobdell Cleaners.

Until the next game this writer will see you at 6005 Mission street.

Annual Aquatic Day Program Offered Sunday

Two of the oldest clubs in San Francisco will hold their first Annual Aquatic Day on Sunday, July 16.

The day's program, consisting of rowing and swimming races by members of the South End Rowing Club and the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club will be held at their Aquatic Park Boathouse.

In the afternoon the winners will be presented with trophies at a dance in the Dolphin Boathouse. Music will be furnished by the "La Rocca's Vibrating Five."

Merino sheep were imported into Australia in 1797 by Capt. John MacArthur, pioneer of the Australian wool industry.

This Week End: Swimming, Diving Championship Test

Aquatic stars from all the Western states will meet at San Francisco's famous Fleishacker Pool for the 14th Annual Far Western Swimming and Diving Championships, July 14-16.

Big three-day water show, staged annually under the auspices of the San Francisco Examiner, includes 26 official AAU Men's and Women's events, and is open to all registered amateurs from California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, and Hawaii. In addition, there will be 20 special events for men and women who have never placed in junior or senior national competition.

The opening day will be devoted entirely to them. One of the greatest name stars to compete is Greta Anderson, Denmark's sensational paddler who upset Ann Curtis at the 1948 Olympic Games in London.

Barbara Jensen, national individual medley and backstroke champion, and distance swimmer Joan Mallory, both members of the 1949 All-American Women's Team, are expected to break their own Far Western marks. In the men's races, Rube Wolf, USC star and member of the Olympic Games squad will perform.

Every major aquatic club on the coast will be represented in the carnival with Crystal Plunge and the Olympic Club of San Francisco out to defend their team titles in the women's and men's divisions.

Fifteen miles north of the Golden Gate, the average rainfall is twice that of San Francisco.

Motorcycle Races Slated At Belmont

Another action-packed motorcycle racing program will return to the Peninsula this week when more than 40 of America's top riders roll onto the quarter-mile dirt track at Belmont Speedway Friday night.

The 12-event racing program will be capped by a 15-lap main event with nine of the evening's fastest speedsters competing.

Last week young Kenneth Eggers of San Jose rode his Harley-Davidson special for top honors in the main event. He will be back Friday night keyed to turning in another victory. Eggers, an amateur in racing circles, is holder of the national 10-mile amateur championship.

Other of the Speedway's consistent winners, who are expected to battle it out Friday night are: Charlie West, San Jose; Shorty Thompson, Sacramento; Larry Headrick, San Jose; Ed Fergundes, Vallejo; Dick McAfee, Oakland. Racing begins at the Speedway at 7 p.m. with time trials. Feature races start at 8:15 o'clock.

The 2,338,000 veterans in training under the GI Bill and Public Law 16 on May 1 represent a drop of 8 per cent from the 2,564,000 veterans enrolled under the two laws a year ago, Veterans Administration said.

SF Attorney Named To San Mateo Post

A San Francisco attorney, F. H. Campbell, 47, was selected last week to succeed George Mann, who resigned, as member of the San Mateo city council.

Campbell is now chairman of the San Mateo city planning commission. His appointment will create a vacancy on the commission which will be filled soon by another council selection.

He will be installed at the council's next meeting July 17.

Mann resigned June 30 to take a newly created job as executive secretary of San Mateo Downtown Association.

First Mayor Of South S. F. Dies

Andrew Hynding, 75, first mayor of South San Francisco, died Sunday morning at Permanente Hospital, San Francisco.

A resident of South City since 1903, he had been employed by Swift & Company for 34 years. In 1927 he bought out E. E. Cunningham real estate which he operated until his death.

Over a period of years he served as mayor and councilman of South City and director of the Bank of South San Francisco.

Survivors are his wife, Bertie; two children, Norman Hynding and Mrs. Eleanor Mattson, and a sister, Miss Cecelia Grave of Redwood City.

Private services were held Tuesday at the Noble Chapel, Cypress Lawn Memorial Park.

DAV Finds Keys For DC Motorist

The Disabled American Veterans has returned a set of lost keys to Eugene R. Grove of Daly City.

Attached to the keys was a DAV Identio-Tag, miniature license tag for key-rings, which is distributed to 30,000,000 motorists each year and the replica of their state license plates enables the DAV to return 5,000 keys a month from its national headquarters in Cincinnati.

In addition to key-loss insurance, the Identio-Tag through contributions enables the DAV to maintain its free rehabilitation service for disabled veterans and their dependents.

Last year the DAV obtained more than $19,000,000 in benefits for disabled veterans and their families. The organization has the largest staff of national service officers of any veterans organization.

Keys are returned to owners from all over the world. One of the most unusual key losses and returns saw a Cincinnati grainery employee lose his set in a sack of oats. The keys were found when the sack was opened aboard a freighter in the English Channel en route to Poland and they made their way back via the DAV.

Two Folk Dancing Classes Open

The Daly City Recreation Department announces the start of two additional folk dancing classes for adults and teen-agers.

One class is for adult beginners. This group will meet on Fridays, starting Friday, July 14, 8 p.m. at Bellevue Hall, 337 Bellevue Avenue.

Tags even brought back keys from the war zone.

For the motorists who wish extra Identio-Tags for extra sets of keys, the DAV has established a special order department, which handles more than 100,000 requests each year.

The DAV Identio-Tag plant is owned and operated by the DAV in the interests of disabled veterans and employs disabled veterans in their manufacture.

Mrs. Muriel Pabst is the instructor. A series of twelve lessons will be offered. The first two will be free, after which you can decide if you desire to go on to the next ten lessons at a nominal fee.

The other class is for teen-agers. It will be held on Tuesdays, starting Tuesday, July 18, 7 p.m., at Castle Hall, 7339 Mission street. There will be no charge for this group. The instructor is Miss Mary Falbo. Folk dancing for teen-agers is also available on Monday evenings at Bellevue Hall.

Other classes now in session include: Adult intermediate group which meets at Castle Hall every Thursday at 8:15 p.m. Children's beginners classes, Tuesday and Thursday, 10 a.m., and intermediates, Tuesday and Thursday, 1 to 2:30 p.m., Jefferson High School playground game room.

SMJC Agricultural Course In Session

An agricultural program that extends from Colma to Los Altos, with a heavy enrollment of students in the Half Moon Bay area, is another indication of the ever-expanding interest of the San Mateo Junior College in the people of this county.

At the present time 89 agricultural majors who are engaged in or preparing for agricultural occupation are continuing their year-round work under the guidance of George Mangis of the college faculty, assisted by seven part-time instructors.

In addition to Mangis the teaching staff includes Victor Binsacca of the Jefferson High school faculty.

The students are divided into three main programs: some of the 89 are in practical horticulture, some are preparing to enter upper division work at a university, and some, in the Half Moon Bay section, are enrolled in general agricultural courses. In addition, the college agriculture department runs a summer canning center that has close to one thousand people registered each year.

Most of the horticultural majors are engaged in classroom plus work experience program. Nurseries and other horticultural organizations provide facilities so that experience in a regular commercial concern may be had. Many of the older students hold full-time jobs at these establishments, and in addition are able to complete classroom requirements for graduation by attending night classes.

Companion Trees
Since apple trees depend upon "companion" or pollinator varieties for good pollination, the trees of any one variety should not be planted in large solid blocks. Where such blocks are established, grafting and the use of bouquets from suitable trees at blossoming time, are suggested as temporary remedial measures.

Farm Products
Featured At Fair

The City and County of San Francisco's State Fair exhibit at Sacramento this year will feature farm and forest products manufactured or processed in the City.

Thomas A. Brooks, chief administrative officer, under whose supervision the city's Fair exhibit is installed, in announcing the theme declared such an exhibition would give thousands of Fair visitors some idea of the important place the city has in the processing and manufacturing of California farm products, and the great diversity of industry in the city.

It is not generally known, Mr. Brooks pointed out, that San Francisco processes a large number of California farm and forest products, including fruits, vegetables, wines, olives, redwood novelties, wool and leather.

The products to be shown by San Francisco manufacturers will be divided into six general classifications—food and beverages, leather, textile, wood, rubber, paper and printing.

Arrangements for the San Francisco exhibit, which is installed in the County Building at the State Fair Grounds, are being handled for Mr. Brooks by the city's Regional Service Committee.

U.C. Medical Center

Construction of the first major unit of the University of California's great new Medical Center, which is designed to help bring the state's medical education and research facilities more in line with actual needs of a growing state, will begin sometime in July, President Robert G. Sproul has announced.

President Sproul announced that the Board of Regents have awarded contracts for construction of the new Teaching Hospital as follows: general construction, $5,075,000, the Clinton Construction Company, San Francisco; electrical work, $468,230, the Abbott Electrical Corporation, San Francisco; plumbing, $479,847, F. W. Spencer & Son; heating and ventilation, $722,247, Marelich Manufacturing Company, San Bruno; elevators, $492,853, Otis Elevator Company, San Francisco.

The contracts call for the construction of 12 finished stories, with two additional stories in the rough, to be completed later. The teaching hospital, which will bear the name of Dr. Herbert C.

Moffitt, revered teacher and former dean of the School of Medicine, is scheduled for completion in 1952.

The hospital is actually part of an integrated structure which will include the Medical Sciences Building. Bids on this unit will be called for in the fall.

The Medical Sciences Building will house all four schools and colleges at the Medical Center at Third and Parnassus avenues: the School of Medicine, College of Dentistry, College of Pharmacy, and School of Nursing. Construction contemplated at present will not entail razing any of the old buildings now standing on the campus.

IT SAVES OIL, TOO

It is simple and inexpensive to improve oil economy through the expedient of keeping the radiator filled with water, advises the National Automobile Club. The engine is less likely to reach a temperature that results in the burning, or aeration, of crankcase lubricant.

DON'T RACE TRAFFIC LIGHTS

Don't race the traffic lights at busy intersections, warns the National Automobile Club. If you make it across that intersection at fifty miles per hour while the lights are changing from yellow to red, you may save a few minutes, but you may also lose your life.

STRIPERS TAKEN

Many medium sized striped bass have been taken recently in the Carquinez Straits and in the waters off Vallejo in the Solano county area, reports the National Automobile Club.

Rent Board Resumes Meetings

The San Mateo County Rent Advisory Board resumed its weekly meetings Monday, July 10.

The board, headed by Michael O'Connor of San Mateo, went on vacation last month while Congress was arguing over the extension of rent control. With the rent law now on the books for another six months, the county's official rent advisors will return to their unpaid jobs.

The board meets from 9 to 10:45 each Monday morning in the council chambers of the San Mateo city hall. Members pass on landlords' applications for rent boosts and eviction requests, tenants' complaints of overcharges and give out general information on rent control.

Other board members are John Cawickell, San Mateo; Arnold Johnson, Millbrae; and Roy W. Cloud, Redwood City. William Bledsoe, rent chief for four Bay Area counties, who resides in San Carlos, sits in with board members to give technical help.

AUTOMOTIVE PRODUCTION

Automotive factories in the United States hit an all-time monthly record when they turned out 696,893 motor vehicles during May 1950 to bring the total for the first five months of the year to 2,893,695, reports the National Automobile Club.

This total represents an increase of nearly 500,000 motor vehicles over the first five months production for the previous peak year, 1949, and was made up of 2,373,514 passenger cars, 518,950 motor trucks, and 1,231 motor coaches.

Historians believe that Eric the Red and his Norsemen visited what is now Massachusetts in 1000.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Old-age and survivors insurance furnishes protection to the living wage earner and his dependents. "Dependents," in this case are his children, if they are under 18 years of age, and his wife, if she is 65 years of age or over.

This insurance system also furnishes protection to the survivors of a wage earner who dies at any age. The survivors who would be entitled to payments are a widow with young children, regardless of the widow's age; the children themselves; the widow, if she is over 65, whether she has young children or not; dependent parents age 65 or over; and persons who pay the burial expenses.

Social security is part of our day-to-day living. But we must guard against taking it so much for granted that we fail to recognize our rights and obligations under it.

In later columns, I shall explain the different types of benefits payable, and tell you how you can prevent loss of any benefit to which you may become entitled.

The office of the Social Security Administration for San Mateo County is located at 42 North B Street, San Mateo. If you have any questions, or desire information about any phase of the program, write or come in to see us.
